DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On April 11, 2006, the Applicant filed an Appeal Brief. One of the arguments in the Brief requested that the 101 rejection be withdrawn. Below, the 101 rejection has been withdrawn and a non-final rejection issued.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

The 101 rejection has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Camelio (US 2004/0015427) in view of Andrus (US 2002/0156709), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

The 101 rejection has been withdrawn, as requested in the Appeal Brief.
